631-399-2030

Ranger-Conducted Programs

House Tour

Friday - Sunday & Holiday Mondays 11:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Meet at the William Floyd Estate Manor House

Visit the historic home of William Floyd and be guided through multiple generations of change from the 1770s to the 1970s.

House tours are given every half hour.

Curatorial Storage Facility Tour

Friday 10:00 a.m.

(by reservation only, 631-399-2030)

Late summer & early fall

If your family lived in the same house for over 250 years, just how many objects would you have stored in your attic, basement, shed, garage, closets and drawers? Without a computer, just how many file cabinets would you need to hold all your important papers? The answer maybe found at the William Floyd Estate. The staff at the Estate will be conducting guided tours of the park's storage facility collection during late summer and early fall. Reservations are required.

For more information, call the William Floyd Estate.

Revolutionary War Encampment

June 10, 2006 Saturday 11a.m. to 4 p.m.

Relive an early American Revolutionary War Encampment.

Come observe this exciting period in American history as military drills, cooking, crafts, clothing, and modes of transportation are brought back to life by re-enactors of the 3rd New York Regiment. Admission is free.

For further information, call the William Floyd Estate.

Colonial Tea with Mr. & Mrs. William Floyd

June 11, 2006 Sunday Noon to 2:00 p.m.

(Special Event, by reservation only: 631-399-1286)

Come and have tea with the Floyd Family as they celebrate the end of the Revolutionary War and the beginning of a new era. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd are inviting friends to the great lawn at their estate for this happy occasion. Enjoy the company of the Floyd Family and be entertained with live music and dancing. This special event by the William Floyd Community Summit's Beautification Committee is a wonderful way to step back in time and relive life on Long Island during the 18th century.

Fee charged. For more information and tickets, call Mrs. Patricia Matthews at 631-399-1286.
